

REMEMBER the Sabbath Day to keep it HOLY

In the Ten Commandments, which do you suppose gets the larger treatment? Reverent observance of the divine order for a day of rest and of worship gets chief emphasis. A moment's reflection makes the reason clear. The man who does not take time to keep the Sabbath will likely forget to worship the God of his fathers; he who does not reverence God cannot be expected to regard his neighbor and his neighbor's goods. Sabbath observance stands, therefore, at the very center of religion and of morality. Then if you disregard the Sabbath you do it at the peril of your soul!

Notice the argument of Moses. God could get His work done in six days, even the creation of a universe and all its creatures. Surely you do not need the seventh day for the lesser tasks of your doing.

You are under the command of God; you are a part of His creation; there is nothing more important for you than that you remember God and your relation to Him. The Sabbath is such a time of remembrance. The church bell, the rest from daily toil, the quietness in the busy street, the need of your own soul, unite to remind you of your God and His day. The law giver commanded His people to keep this one day sacred to the Lord; to use it for one's own profit is to rob God of the time which belongs to Him.

Here is an ancient command, never more important than today. The press of the material and the secular was never more insistent; things want to get in the saddle and ride mankind. Remember the Sabbath; then you will worship God and know that you are the eternal child of the Highest. He who remembers the Sabbath most is most likely to remember to attend his church.

YOU IN THE CHURCH

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that the young and old alike are educated with beneficial and lasting influence for a better citizenship and a stronger democracy. In the church the ministerial are holding religious education. Students today receive the office of state in these various lines. They are with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. "You in the Church and the Church in you" goes and a daily Bible reader.

See You in Church TODAY!

Council Camp Fire Girls Win Traffic Safety Award

Outstanding contribution to highway safety during 1953 won Los Angeles Area Council of Camp Fire Girls, which includes Torrance groups, a citation award from the National Committee for Traffic Safety, Mrs. Thomas G. Smith, publicity chairman, reported this week.

Only six organizations in the nation qualified for the coveted award. Mrs. Smith said, and Camp Fire was the only youth group, and the only group in the Western region so honored.

The local organization was recognized for its program of training children in good safety practices.

Mrs. Leland J. Durfey, Council president, accepted the citation award at a special ceremony held last month at the Conference of Camp Fire Girls in Omaha, Neb. The award itself, a gold figure approximately eight inches tall, is inscribed "Presented to Los Angeles Area Camp Fire Girls for achievement in development of public support for highway safety, 1953."

Girls who have completed the 1952-53 year-round safety program and are eligible for a safety citation will be guests of honor at the Art Linkletter Show on KINXT at 11:30 a.m., June 23. The girls also will be honored on June 24 at a studio party on Bill Stulla's KNBB program at 2:30 p.m.

FLY-UP RITES HELD FOR 15 BROWNIES

Fifteen girls came out of the Brownie Hall and entered the portals of Girl Scout Troop 1368, sponsored by Crenshaw Elementary School, when fly-up ceremonies were held at the school last week.

Doors decorated with the emblems of each Scout group were employed in the rites to signify the advance. As the girls came through the first door, they sang the Brownie song and recited Girl Scout laws and promises. Following a talk by Brownie Ann Johnson on the meaning of fly-up, the girls received their wings from Mesdames Earl Brest and Lester Mitchell.

Flying up were Carolyn Brown, Anita Faubus, Linda Geronimo, Carolyn Peterson, Geraldine Richards, Janet Ruckle, Donna Sayre, Virginia Mitchell, Joanne Paps, Carol Hamilton, Susan Hayes, Alvania Jones, and Johnson. Prior to the ceremonies, the girls served dinner to the following visitors:

MRS. L. STAMPS NAMED FINANCE CHAIRMAN FOR HARBOR YWCA

Mrs. Lee Stamps, former chairman of the Torrance Branch of the YWCA, was named finance chairman of the Harbor District YWCA at the June meeting of the Association's board of directors.

Others named to serve as committee chairmen were the following:

Mesdames Larry Lightner, camp; O. R. C. Grow, centennial celebration; Paul Abrams, Community Chest; Melvin Andrews, devotions; Roger Scott, San Pedro, house; Arnold Beklund, membership; Alfred Jorgensen, nationalities interest; A. W. Warneck, national support; E. C. Spire, nominating.

Alonzo Hurley, personnel; Schuyler Hoffman, public affairs; Catherine J. Loggett, public relations; Frances Dastarne, remembrance; Louis Ladra, world fellowship; Roy Becker, ways and means; Edith Caragher, Soroptimist liaison; Harold Larmer, and E. G. Groom, Wilmington; Miss Nell Colburn and Mrs. Minnie Solomon, Torrance.

Two girls from the local Seaside Y-Teens, Betty Rush and Mary Walker, will join Wilmington.

Health, Reading Selected High Points of School Year

Health and reading will receive emphasis in Torrance schools during the coming year, Dr. J. H. Hull, school superintendent, told Torrance Council PTA executive board members when they met last Tuesday at the Board of Education office.

In his talk, Dr. Hull also told the Board that, according to a recent survey, moral and community attitudes are among the most important conditions teachers consider when seeking their areas of employment.

Appointment of Mrs. Victor Benard, parliamentarian, as chairman of a committee to study the organization's by-laws highlighted the business session. Named to serve with her were Mesdames Elmer Moon, Evar Jansson, Bruce Howey, and Raymond Hole.

Local Miss To Take Harbor Girl Scout Office Tonight

Miss Diane Powers of Torrance will take office as corresponding secretary of the Junior-Senior Council, Harbor Section Girl Scouts, tonight at installation ceremonies to be held at Cabrillo Beach, San Pedro.

She will assist Carol Roath of San Pedro, who will be installed as the new president. Other leaders to be seated are Diane Schildmeyer of Lomita, vice-president, and Maurice Shaw, recording secretary, both of Lomita.

Ceremonies will follow a 6:30 o'clock potluck supper. A campfire program, including skits and group singing, will conclude the evening festivities.

Slates June Piano Recitals

Kathryne Buffington, pianist and teacher whose studio is at 1204 Arlington Ave., this week announced two recitals, to be presented Saturday and Sunday, June 20 and 21, at her studio.

Both affairs, scheduled for 2:30 p.m., will feature soloists, Ann Flanagan and Ernest Kitterell on Saturday and Leroy Anderson, basso, on Sunday. Duo piano groups will alternate with the solos.

Miss Mickey Van Deventer, who has studied with Mrs. Buffington for eight years and who recently won a piano scholarship to Redlands University, will be in the spotlight at both Saturday and Sunday recitals.

Other pianists who will perform include Shirley Deere and Michael Mullen, both of whom have appeared on radio shows. The public is invited to attend both recitals.

HOLD OVERNIGHT

Fun and good fellowship was the slogan Friday night last week when several members of Girl Scout Troop 1277 gathered in the backyard at the 17327 Faida Ave. home of their leader, Mrs. Basil Ball, for an overnight and cook-out.

Participating in the event were Lela Santon, Roberta Rogers, Dianah Standley, Rosemary Streetmaker, Yvonne Turbey, and Jean Sorrell.
